Volcanoes Fan Appreciation Night

Tuesday, June 10, 2008

Vancouver, WA — The International Basketball League is considering bring the championship game to Vancouver and Clark College is one of the potential locations. One of the concerns the league has brought up is if Vancouver has a strong enough basketball fan base. Next Saturday June 14th, the league will be sending a representative to the Volcanoes game to see what the turnout is like and the fan experience.

Because of this opportunity, the Vancouver Volcanoes have decided to make this night Fan Appreciation night. This will be an opportunity for the Vancouver community to prove to the league that Vancouver has a great basketball fan base and supports its local teams.

Saturday June 14, 2008 will be Fan Appreciation Night. All fans will be allowed in for free of charge. There will be free face painting for kids, a pre game clinic for kids (6pm), and free t-shirt give aways.

About the Vancouver Volcanoes

The Volcanoes are entering into their fourth season and have continually improved talent and their record. The season begins in late march and will run through June. For more information, stats, press releases, and more go to www.vancouvervolcanoes.com

About the IBL

Two unique features distinguish the IBL from other professional basketball leagues:

1. An entertaining game. By allowing only one timeout per quarter, and reducing the time between plays with an immediate inbounds policy, IBL games are always fast and entertaining. IBL teams average 127 points per contest; just as important—games last only two hours.

2. Extremely low travel costs. The IBL promises a maximum of one trip per season requiring air travel. This ‘one flight guarantee’ that teams enjoy promotes financial health and longevity for IBL teams. In fact, all 17 teams completed the first IBL season (the 2005 season); as well, all 24 teams completed the 2006 season. The 2008 season will tip off in March of 2008.
